

Carlton Fields' Justin Chretien Comments on SEC's Equity Market Structure

October 07, 2021

Carlton Fields Shareholder Justin Chretien authored articles in Law360 and Traders Magazine reviewing the SEC's recently released report and recommendations after the GameStop event of earlier this year. "While the October 14 report did not fault the market participants in the GameStop event, it is likely the SEC will soon publish for comment numerous proposals for rulemaking regarding equity market structure," comments Chretien.
