

Insurance Attorney Chad W. Dunham Joins Carlton Fields in Orlando

November 19, 2021

Orlando, Fla. – Carlton Fields is pleased to announce that Chad W. Dunham has joined the firm's Orlando office as an associate. He is a member of the firm's nationally recognized Property and Casualty Insurance Practice. Carlton Fields attorneys handle coverage and claims counseling, litigation, and arbitration services in matters involving all types of property and casualty insurance. The firm earned national rankings in Insurance Law in the U.S. News and World Report and Best Lawyers® Best Law Firms 2022 guide. Additionally, Chambers USA 2021 ranked Carlton Fields as a top firm in Florida for Insurance. Dunham defends property and casualty insurance companies in litigation. He represents clients in coverage disputes and other litigation, including matters involving indemnification and subrogation. Prior to joining Carlton Fields, Dunham handled a variety of civil litigation, including premises liability, personal injury, property damage, wrongful death, professional negligence, product liability, and homeowners and condominium association matters. He earned his J.D., cum laude; his B.A.; and his B.S. from Michigan State University.

Featuring

Chad W. Dunham

Related Industries

Property & Casualty Insurance

