

Tampa Law Firm Expands Health Care Practice With a Managed Care Legal Expert from WellCare

May 21, 2018

Carlton Fields attorney Marguerita Brunson Sims was featured in the Tampa Bay Business Journal article, “Tampa Law Firm Expands Health Care Practice with a Managed Care Legal Expert from WellCare.” The article discusses Brunson Sims’ move to the firm’s nationally recognized health care practice in Tampa, where she will utilize more than 20 years of experience to handle transactional, regulatory, litigation, and fraud and abuse issues for top industry clients. Brunson Sims also talks about how her interest in health care began, her prior in-house, government, and private practice experience, and where she sees the future of health care heading. The article also highlights the firm’s health care practice growth, noting the recent addition of Emil Hirsch, who will join the firm as Shareholder in Washington, D.C. Read the article. (Subscription required for full access.)

Featuring

Emil Hirsch

Related Practices

Health Care

Related Industries

Health Care

