

Carlton Fields Class Action Survey Mentioned in Florida Trend: “Burger Suing King”

April 16, 2024

Carlton Fields was featured in Florida Trend, in an article titled “Burger Suing King.” The article discusses a niche of fast-food and candy class actions against companies like Wendy’s, McDonalds, Arby’s, and Taco Bell. The piece noted that these actions are part of a broad category of consumer fraud complaints, highlighting that this is the second largest type of class actions companies face according to the Carlton Fields 2024 Class Action Survey. The article also quotes Matt Allen, chair of the firm’s National Class Actions Practice. Read the article. Subscription may be required.

Featuring

D. Matthew Allen

Related Practices

Class Actions

