

Positioning Real Estate and Lending Practitioners to Respond to the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008

October 17, 2008

The white paper entitled "Positioning Real Estate and Lending Practitioners to Respond to the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act of 2008," (the Act) is intended to assist those involved in the real estate finance community to better understand the components of the Act that may affect them directly. This white paper was written by Tampa shareholder Sandra G. Porter and a team of real estate and finance attorneys throughout the firm.

Carlton Fields Economic Recovery Task Force

In an effort to assist our clients in analyzing the potential impact and ramifications of the Emergency Economic Stabilization Act (EESA), Carlton Fields formed the Economic Recovery Task Force. The Task Force is comprised of a multi-disciplinary team of experienced attorneys and government consultants from across the firm's offices who are closely following and analyzing developments relating to the current financial crisis and helping our clients to identify the issues and opportunities facing them during this uncertain time.
