Overview

Camila Deckers is developing her practice in business litigation. As a summer associate with the firm, she researched and drafted memoranda on state and federal law, edited appellate briefs, and helped prepare for trial.

Camila earned her J.D., magna cum laude, from the University of Miami School of Law, where she served as communications advisor for the First-Generation Law Association. During law school, she was a judicial extern for the Honorable Christine Bandin of the Eleventh Judicial Circuit Court of Florida.
