

Carlton Fields Alum William F. Jung Nominated to U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida

December 20, 2017

Carlton Fields alum William F. Jung was nominated by President Donald J. Trump to serve as a district judge on the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

He is currently co-founder and partner at the firm Jung & Sisco P.A., where his practice focuses on civil, commercial, and white collar defense litigation.

Jung practiced as an associate at Carlton Fields from 1985 to 1987.

Read the announcement.

©2024 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.

