Overview

Christopher Hewlett is developing his practice in business litigation. As a summer associate with the firm, he drafted research memos and took part in mediations, hearings, and depositions.

At Stetson University College of Law, he was a member of the trial team, winning a best advocate award at the All-Stars National Trial Competition and the Victor O. Wehle Award for trial advocacy. He was also an associate editor of the Stetson Journal of Advocacy and the Law and a teacher's assistant for constitutional law. During law school, Christopher was a legal intern at Blue Ocean Title, where he drafted pleadings and researched legal issues.

Earlier in his career, Christopher was an emergency medical technician in Northeast Florida during the COVID-19 pandemic.
