Overview

Georgette Reid focuses her practice on business litigation, with experience defending clients in professional liability matters, as well as other commercial disputes, in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, and federal courts. She has handled all phases of litigation, including fact investigations, discovery, dispositive motions, depositions, and case management conferences, identifying legal and procedural issues to build effective case strategies. Georgette works closely with clients, witnesses, and opposing counsel to manage cases toward resolution.

Before joining the firm, Georgette served as a law clerk to the Honorable George H. Gangloff Jr. of the Superior Court of New Jersey.
