

Nathaniel G. Foell Joins Carlton Fields in Tampa

May 02, 2018

Tampa, Fla. – Carlton Fields is pleased to announce that Nathaniel G. Foell has joined the firm as an associate in its Tampa office. He is a member of the Business Litigation section of the firm’s National Trial practice group. Foell’s practice focuses on complex civil litigation. He represents a diverse range of clients at both the trial and appellate levels. Foell has particular experience defending class actions, both in the multidistrict litigation context and more generally. He has also briefed cases before the U.S. Supreme Court and federal courts of appeals. Prior to joining the firm, Foell was an associate at Hogan Lovells in Washington, D.C. Previously, he served as a law clerk for the Honorable David F. Hamilton on the United States Court of Appeals for the Seventh Circuit. Foell earned his J.D., cum laude, from New York University School of Law, where he was an articles editor for the New York University Law Review. He received his A.M. in Philosophy from Harvard University, and his B.A., with distinction, in Philosophy and B.A., summa cum laude, in Political Science from the University of Oklahoma. He is a member of the New York Bar and the District of Columbia Bar. (Until admission in Florida, any work on Florida matters will be supervised in accord with Rule 4-5.3.)

Featuring

Nathaniel G. Foell

Related Practices

[Appellate & Trial Support
Litigation and Trials](#)

