Overview

Mike Tippet represents institutional and entrepreneurial owners, investors, developers, and tenants in buying, selling, developing, and leasing commercial real estate projects of all types, with a particular focus on multitenant office and retail and single-tenant, net-leased properties. Mike also has significant experience in representing lenders and borrowers in negotiating, documenting and closing acquisition and development, construction, permanent and mezzanine loans, and in a variety of post-closing loan servicing matters, including loan modifications and restructurings, loan workouts, and the disposition of REO properties.

Prior to attending law school, Mike spent approximately 10 years in the shopping center development industry. This background gives him a unique ability to bring a business-oriented perspective to the handling of his clients' matters.
