Overview

Lavinia "Vinnie" Vaughn has considerable experience with real estate and financing transactions, including complex transactions involving multiple properties and ownership structures, as well as foreclosure and work out litigation, particularly on behalf of lenders. She has handled foreclosure actions in state and federal courts in Florida for lenders and borrowers as well. She also has experience with loan sales by lenders and has handled the sale of large loan portfolios.

Vinnie has extensive experience in real estate title and survey matters in Florida, real estate acquisition and sale transactions, and real estate financing and development transactions. She has served as local Florida counsel on numerous multistate loan, acquisition, and sale transactions and has experience with the complex tax and financing issues involved in these transactions, including issues involving Florida mortgage and transfer taxes.

Vinnie is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell. She is an active member of the Mortgage Lending Committee of the American Bar Association's Real Property, Trust, and Estate Law Section and is the author of the Florida law article published in Foreclosure Law and Related Remedies: A State-by-State Digest by the American Bar Association.

Experience
