Overview

Aaron Weiss maintains a national litigation practice focused on telecommunications law, class actions, and consumer claims. His cases often involve all of these areas of law. He also frequently counsels insurance companies on complex coverage issues relating to class actions and other aggregated litigation.

Aaron frequently litigates class action cases under a variety of consumer protection statutes, including the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (TCPA), the Florida Telephone Solicitation Act (Florida Mini TCPA), the Florida Telephone Solicitation Act (FTSA), the Fair Credit Reporting Act (FCRA), the Fair and Accurate Credit Transactions Act (FACTA), the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act (FDCPA), the Medicare Secondary Payer Act (MSP Act), the Video Privacy Protection Act (VPPA), the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act (FDUTPA), the Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act of 1985 (COBRA), and the Florida Consumer Collection Practices Act (FCCPA).

Aaron also routinely defends companies sued in data breach class actions and counsels insurers on issues related to cyber claims.

Aaron also has significant experience in both prosecuting and defending against intellectual property claims, often in cases involving novel technology.

Aaron is recognized as a prominent voice in the legal press on these practice areas. He is routinely quoted in various lawyer-focused publications on key issues related to consumer class actions. He also regularly publishes articles, lectures, and podcasts on issues related to procedural rules in federal court practice and other issues related to his practice. He currently writes a regular column for Law360 addressing key issues under consumer class actions and is part of the board of contributors for the Daily Business Review, where he frequently writes columns relating to federal civil practice in Florida.

By appointment of Chief Judges K. Michael Moore and Cecilia Altonaga, since 2014, Aaron has served on the Southern District of Florida Ad Hoc Committee on Rules and Procedures. He has been the lead drafter of amendments to more than a dozen local rules.

Aaron is board certified by the Florida Bar in business litigation — a distinction achieved by less than 250 of the more than 100,000 Florida lawyers.

In addition to his practice as an advocate, Aaron is a Florida Supreme Court certified mediator for civil and appellate cases. His mediation work focuses on class actions and other consumer claims.

Experience

Consumer Class Actions

Aaron has substantial experience in consumer class action matters across a wide range of industries, including the telecommunications, automotive, banking, mortgage insurance, and timeshare industries. He also frequently counsels liability insurers on issues related to the resolution of class actions where their policyholders are named as defendants.

Over the course of two decades of practice, Aaron has established a reputation as a thought leader within the Florida and national class action defense bar. He has been successful in:

- Minimizing class action risks through early non-class resolutions.
- Drafting and enforcing arbitration agreements with class action waivers.
- Disposing of cases at the motion to dismiss and summary judgment stages.
- Opposing class certification.
- Negotiating favorable resolutions on a classwide basis.

Some of his notable consumer class action cases include:

- Represented telecommunications company in class action concerning alleged defective COBRA notices. Obtained order approving a reversionary settlement fund. Taylor v. Citizens Telecom Servs. Co., No. 8:20-cv-00509, 2022 WL 456448 (M.D. Fla. Feb. 8, 2022).

In connection with his class action work, Aaron previously co-chaired the ABA Commercial and Business Litigation Section's Class Action Subcommittee. Aaron is presently serving on the Florida Bar Consumer Protection Law Committee, where he has served as the chair of the Data Privacy and Cybersecurity Subcommittee and its CLE subcommittee.

Telephone Consumer Protection Act Litigation

Litigation involving the federal TCPA has increased dramatically in the last several years. While many firms across the country have only recently fielded teams in this area, Aaron has been involved in TCPA cases filed as early as 2009. Aaron also is nationally recognized as a leading authority on the Florida Telephone Solicitation Act (also called the Florida Mini TCPA or the FTSA) and has spoken at several national conferences since the enactment of the amended act on July 1, 2021. Many of the TCPA and FTSA cases he litigated have involved issues of first impression. Some of his notable TCPA and FTSA cases include:

- Obtained order permitting defendant to move for summary judgment with respect to the plaintiff's individual TCPA claims prior to class certification. Verma v. Walden Univ., LLC, No. 3:22-cv-00776, 2023 WL 2780138 (M.D. Fla. Mar. 29, 2023).

- Obtained order of first impression establishing standards for asserting third-party claims in TCPA cases. Osorio v. State Farm Bank, F.S.B., 278 F.R.D. 671 (S.D. Fla. 2011).

Aaron routinely counsels business clients on TCPA and FTSA compliance and counsels insurance companies on TCPA-related coverage issues. He is also a frequent speaker on issues related to the TCPA and the FTSA.

Telecommunications Fraud Prevention

Telecommunications fraud is a major issue that impacts telecommunications companies and consumers. Aaron helped pioneer strategies to combat these problems. Carlton Fields is the only law firm in the country with a dedicated team working across the industry in this area.

As part of these efforts, Aaron first-chaired prosecutions of dozens of claims on behalf of several major wireless telephone services providers in litigation throughout the United States involving claims to combat retail subsidy fraud, intellectual property violations, and other fraud prevention matters.

Aaron obtained awards for his clients that total over a quarter of a billion dollars against hundreds of defendants. Many of the telecommunications fraud prevention victories he helped his clients achieve are profiled at: <http://stopcellphonetrafficking.com/>.

Some of Aaron's notable awards on behalf of his clients in this area include:

Drafted the briefs that became the template for motions the FDIC used in these matters all over the country, and was also asked to participate in hearings relating to the D'Oench Duhme doctrine throughout Florida. Notable decisions on this issue include 1225 S.W. 8th St. Prop., Inc. v. Iberiabank, 84 So. 3d 326 (Fla. 3d DCA 2012) (affirming dismissal with prejudice entered in favor of client on basis of FDIC superpowers) and Iberiabank v. Coconut 41, LLC, No. 2:11-cv-00321, 2012 WL 2345223 (M.D. Fla. June 11, 2012) (finding the federal court maintains mandatory continued jurisdiction after dismissal of FDIC when superpowers are invoked).
- Defended leading bank in defending claims related to alleged false imprisonment. Successfully defeated plaintiff's attempt to pursue claim for punitive damages. Marshall v. Washington, 487 F. App'x 523 (11th Cir. 2012).
- Prosecuted claims related to improper sales of products and obtained judgment for $60,000 in favor of client. TracFone Wireless, Inc. v. Ada, No. 5:09-cv-00603, 2009 WL 10729585 (W.D. Okla. Aug. 3, 2009).

- Represented the owner of the world-famous “Versace Mansion” in foreclosure proceeding and devised a strategy to avoid foreclosure for more than 15 months by demanding that each of the more than 20 individuals who were members of the LLC that held the note establish they were diverse from the defendant. VM S. Beach LLC v. Casa Casuarina, LLC, No. 1:11-cv-24612, 2013 WL 1149657 (S.D. Fla. Mar. 19, 2013).
- Defended former directors and officers of a national airline in securities litigation in Florida state, federal, and bankruptcy courts, and obtained orders dismissing complaints from both state and federal judges. Arnold v. McFall, 839 F. Supp. 2d 1281 (S.D. Fla. 2011); Welt v. McFall, No. CACE-12-030848, 2013 WL 5937319 (Fla. 17th Cir. Ct. Aug. 26, 2013).
- Represented a leading cosmetic products company in antitrust litigation. Assisted with obtaining order of dismissal with prejudice and affirmance on appeal. Duty Free Ams., Inc. v. Estée Lauder Cos., Inc., 797 F.3d 1248 (11th Cir. 2015).
- Represented a lender in navigating an “around the country” jurisdictional journey that involved: (1) prevailing in a contested removal proceeding from West Virginia state court to the Northern District of West Virginia; (2) then prevailing on heavily opposed transfer dispute from that court to the Middle District of Florida; (3) followed by obtaining a stay entered by the transferee federal court to allow summary judgment by a Florida state court to be entered. Creative Commc’ns, LLC v. Iberiabank, No. 5:14-cv-00036, 2014 WL 2111208 (N.D. W. Va. May 7, 2014).
- Represented bank in claim alleging improper loan servicing practices and obtained dismissal of improperly joined claims. Barber v. America’s Wholesale Lender, 289 F.R.D. 364 (M.D. Fla. 2013).
- Represented a leading component manufacturer in obtaining a judgment against a distributor. Esys Latin Am., Inc. v. Intel Corp., 925 F. Supp. 2d 1306 (S.D. Fla. 2013).
- Represented Brazil-based bank in contesting attempted use of 28 U.S.C. § 1782 by Brazilian bankruptcy trustee for discovery in Brazil. Obtained a precedent-setting order staying proceeding pending resolution of issues in Brazil and Cayman Islands courts. In re Application of Alves Braga, 789 F. Supp. 2d 1294 (S.D. Fla. 2011).
- Successfully contested subpoenas and obtained fees for client. Learning Connections, Inc. v. Kaufman, Englett & Lynd, PLLC, 282 F.R.D. 574 (M.D. Fla. 2012).
- Defended telecommunications company in lawsuit challenging eligibility for free cell phones under the federal Lifeline program. Schipke v. TracFone Wireless, Inc., 146 F. Supp. 3d 455 (D. Conn. 2015).
- Defended antitrust claims on behalf of international company in litigation lasting nearly 10 years through state and federal trial and appellate courts. MYD Marine Distrib., Inc. v. Int’l Paint Ltd., 151 So. 3d 1263 (Fla. 4th DCA 2014).
- Represented nationally known recording artist in dispute with a service vendor. Marley v. Jetshares Only, LLC, 767 F. Supp. 2d 1337 (S.D. Fla. 2011).
