

Carlton Fields Alumnus Tom Barber Confirmed as U.S. District Judge

June 12, 2019

Carlton Fields alumnus Tom Barber was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to serve as a district judge for the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida.

Judge Barber was nominated to the position by President Donald J. Trump.

He was previously a Circuit Judge in the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit and a Hillsborough County Court Judge, where he handled civil and criminal cases.

Judge Barber began his legal career at Carlton Fields as an associate from 1992 to 1997, and returned to the firm as a shareholder practicing trial and business litigation from 2000 to 2004, after serving as a prosecutor with the Thirteenth Judicial Circuit and the Florida Attorney General's Office of Statewide Prosecution.

©2024 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.

