

ABA Sound Advice: Five Tips for Successful Local Counsel Engagements

November 08, 2022

This podcast provides practical advice for locating, engaging, and working with local counsel on litigation matters. This is especially useful for those hiring local counsel and for those who serve as local counsel. Tips include scoping, drafting engagement letters, and the three common forms of local counsel engagements. This podcast was recorded as part of the Sound Advice program of the American Bar Association's Section of Litigation.

Presented By

John E. Clabby

Related Practices

Litigation and Trials

Government Law & Consulting

©2024 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.