

Coast-to-Coast Privacy Compliance: California, Colorado, Connecticut, Utah, and Virginia

September 29, 2022

With state-level momentum for comprehensive privacy bills at an all-time high, companies should familiarize themselves with the types of requirements and begin to address and develop mechanics for those requirements.

This interactive webinar discusses the latest developments in privacy law, with the speakers walking through enacted legislation from both a practical and legal standpoint.

Attendees will gain a better understanding of how privacy is developing in the United States, while armed with practical suggestions as to which tasks businesses should focus on today.
