

Carlton Fields Receives United Way Good Works Award

December 10, 2002

Carlton Fields is pleased to announce that the Firm's Miami office recently received a "Good Works" award from the United Way of Miami-Dade County. The firm received the award in recognition of its dedication to helping others in the community.

Good Works is United Way of Miami-Dade's recognition program that praises organizations that demonstrate a serious commitment to improving the quality of life for people in need, and are actively involved in making the community a better, safer place.

The Carlton Fields Miami office opened in April 1997 to serve the many and varied needs of the firm's local, state and national clients. The office's 58 attorneys have significant experience in representing clients in the state and federal courts of Florida and nationwide. The office's major practice areas include: Trials and Appeals, Banking, Bankruptcy, Commercial Litigation, Construction, Fidelity and Surety, Environmental, Toxic Tort, Insurance Coverage, Labor and Employment, and Products Liability. The office also serves as a gateway to our clients' needs in the Caribbean, and Central and South America.
