

Capitol e-Report - Senator Ken Pruitt Resigns

May 11, 2009

On the last day of the 2009 Legislative Session, Senator Ken Pruitt (R-Port St. Lucie) resigned his seat from the Florida Senate, effective August 4, 2009. Thus we expect there to be a special election for his seat over the summer months. The likely candidates are:

- Former Representative Joe Negron (R) – Served in the Florida House 2000 – 2006; attorney,
- Former Representative Art Argenio (R) – Elected in a special election and served one term; chiropractor, and
- Bill Ramos (D) – Ran unsuccessfully against Representative Fetterman (D) in the 2008 primary; VP of a title company.

©2024 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.

