

HITECH Act: New Security Breach Notification Requirements

April 02, 2009

Carlton Fields is pleased to provide you with the second of three Client Alerts addressing the various obligations and requirements imposed by the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health Act ("HITECH Act"). The second Client Alert, entitled "HITECH Act: New Security Breach Notification Requirements," discusses the new notification requirements imposed on covered entities (and to a certain extent, business associates) that experience a security breach or unauthorized disclosure of individuals' protected health information. To view the HITECH Act, please click on the PDF icon above.

Related Practices

Health Care

Related Industries

Health Care

©2024 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.

