

Carlton Fields Attorney Rahul P. Ranadive Appointed to STEP Miami Branch's Board of Directors

December 07, 2017

Miami, Fla. – Carlton Fields is pleased to announce that Miami attorney Rahul P. Ranadive was appointed to the Board of Directors of the Society of Trust and Estate Practitioners (STEP) Miami Branch, Inc., a division of the worldwide organization whose mission is to help families plan their assets across generations. Its members advise families on inheritance and succession planning. Ranadive will begin his two-year term on the 12-member board on January 1, 2018. As a board member, he will assist in running the operations of the local branch, which was founded in 2000, and comprises more than 250 members from across Miami's accountancy, banking, legal, and fiduciary sectors. STEP Miami Branch, Inc. organizes monthly events and an annual conference known as STEP Miami Summit, where attendees share their expertise, learn about developments in trusts and estate, and build strong business relationships. Ranadive has been a member of the organization since 2009. At Carlton Fields, he advises international high net-worth families on global estate and trust planning, private banking and other personal tax matters. He also advises closely held family businesses on a wide range of international and domestic tax and corporate issues
