

Two Carlton Fields Attorneys Named “BTI Client Service All- Stars” for 2017

February 07, 2017

Corporate counsel named two Carlton Fields Shareholders “Client Service All-Stars” in BTI Consulting Group’s 2017 survey, BTI Client Service All-Star list.

- Chris Coutroulis (Tampa)
- Robert Freedman (Tampa)

The survey identifies lawyers who demonstrate superior client focus and legal skills, have an exceptional understanding of the client’s business, deliver outstanding results while being efficient and offering value-added service, and provide innovative thought leadership to their clients’ business and legal objectives. This year’s report names 310 lawyers from 160 law firms. Attorneys named to this elite group are identified solely through unprompted client feedback that recognizes them for delivering the absolute best client service. To learn more about BTI’s 2017 Client Service All-Stars, visit BTI’s website.

Featuring

Chris S. Coutroulis

Robert S. Freedman

Related Practices

Litigation and Trials

Antitrust and Trade Regulation

Real Estate

Mass Tort and Product Liability

Related Industries

Real Estate