

American Bar Association Appoints Mark A. Neubauer to Standing Committee on Publishing Oversight

July 24, 2018

Los Angeles, Calif. – Carlton Fields is pleased to announce that Los Angeles Office Managing Shareholder Mark A. Neubauer has been appointed to the American Bar Association (ABA) Standing Committee on Publishing Oversight. He will begin a three-year term in August 2018. The committee consists of 12 members tasked with examining and suggesting publishing policies and strategies to the Board of Governors and House of Delegates. Neubauer will contribute policy oversight, supervision, and direction to the ABA's publishing arm, working closely with organization leadership to develop initiatives that meet the changing needs of members, supply new or increased revenues, and support additional related goals, as well as implement any resulting publication policies.

Neubauer has previously served in several leadership positions with the ABA, including vice chair of the Standing Committee on Publications and a board of editors member for the association's highly regarded magazine. At Carlton Fields, Neubauer focuses his practice on sophisticated litigation including commercial, securities, antitrust, real estate, employment, and entertainment. He has been recognized repeatedly for his skills trying jury and bench cases in both state and federal courts.

Featuring

Mark A. Neubauer

Related Practices

Appellate & Trial Support
Business Transactions
Construction
Consumer Finance
Creditors' Rights and Bankruptcy
Government Law & Consulting
Health Care
Intellectual Property
Labor & Employment
Mass Tort and Product Liability
Media, Entertainment, Music & Sports
Litigation and Trials
Pharmaceuticals and Medical Devices
Real Estate
Real Property Litigation
Telephone Consumer Protection Act
Title Insurance
Trade Secrets / Noncompete Litigation and Consulting

Related Industries

Construction
Health Care
Life, Annuity, and Retirement Solutions
Property & Casualty Insurance
Real Estate