

Edward Page Receives Professionalism Award from Thirteenth Judicial Circuit

October 11, 2023

Tampa, FL – The Thirteenth Judicial Circuit presented the 2023 Professionalism Award to Edward Page during its annual Hillsborough County Bar Association Bench Bar Conference luncheon. Page was the private-sector recipient of the award. This annual award recognizes individuals who consistently demonstrate honesty, integrity, fairness, courtesy, and an abiding sense of responsibility to comply with the standards and rules of professionalism in the practice of law. Page was selected based on nominations and recommendations by lawyers and judges throughout the circuit, and his many achievements as a state and federal prosecutor and then as a private practitioner. At the firm, Page handles federal and state criminal and civil matters, including white collar criminal, aviation, product liability, personal injury, family law, and complex commercial litigation matters. His white collar criminal representation covers both individuals and corporate clients, health care fraud, criminal tax, environmental crimes, asset forfeiture, attorneys general investigations, and regulatory enforcement.
