

Jason Quintero Honored by Habitat for Humanity of Hillsborough County

July 18, 2023

TAMPA, FL – Habitat for Humanity of Hillsborough County recognized Jason Quintero as a top volunteer during its annual volunteer appreciation celebration. Quintero received the Millard Fuller Lifetime Achievement Award for his “transformational impact” within the organization. The award, named for the late co-founder of Habitat for Humanity International, is presented to an individual who has made a transformational impact on Habitat Hillsborough through the same principles envisioned by Fuller. In addition to providing pro bono services to the nonprofit, Quintero previously served a six-year term on Habitat Hillsborough’s board of directors, helping transform the organization through numerous successes and consistent growth. Quintero is the managing shareholder of Carlton Fields’ Tampa office, where he focuses his practice on all aspects of construction litigation, with an emphasis on lien and bond law and construction defect disputes.
