Overview

Enrique Arana's practice includes major litigation involving insurance companies and other financial institutions; reinsurance litigation and arbitration; commercial contract disputes; and constitutional, environmental, and land use law.

Enrique represents insurance carriers and financial institutions in a range of complex litigation matters in state and federal courts throughout the United States, including substantial class action litigation as well as reinsurance disputes. He has extensive experience in consumer fraud, sales practices, ERISA claims, high-exposure punitive damages, and appellate litigation. He also has extensive experience in First Amendment and other constitutional cases, local government land use disputes, and major environmental litigation.

Following law school graduation, Enrique clerked for the Honorable Kenneth L. Ryskamp of the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida. Following his clerkship, Enrique joined Carlton Fields as an associate in the Miami office.
