Overview

Chris Freeman concentrates his law practice in complex litigation, including a broad range of cases at both the trial and appellate level involving insurance coverage, commercial disputes and business torts, and media and entertainment law. He is a contributor to the firm's PropertyCasualtyFocus blog, which covers legal developments in the property-casualty industry.

Chris is experienced in counseling and representing clients in all aspects of litigation, from mediation and arbitration to trial and appellate proceedings in both state and federal courts. He regularly counsels his insurance clients on coverage issues and assists with policy drafting. Chris has obtained several notable decisions at both the trial and appellate level for his insurance clients in cases involving allegations of waiver/estoppel, statutory bad faith, and assault. Chris has also authored amicus briefs on behalf of insurance-related industry groups in matters relating to Georgia insurance law.

Chris was selected to the Georgia Rising Stars list by Super Lawyers Magazine in 2010, 2011, 2014–2019, and is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell. He is a proud graduate of the University of Virginia, where he obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree with high distinction in English, and Vanderbilt University Law School, where he was awarded the prestigious John W. Wade Scholarship. He is also a graduate of the Westminster Schools in Atlanta.
