Overview

Jaret Fuente represents businesses and professionals in commercial disputes, class actions, and tort litigation in the construction, development, health care, insurance, product manufacturing, and real estate industries.

Jaret represents product manufacturers in the automotive, aviation, chemical, medical device, pharmaceutical, recreational product, and sporting goods sectors in connection with consumer fraud, crashworthiness, design and manufacturing defect, and warranty claims. Jaret has also represented an automotive manufacturer in a series of class actions involving deceptive and unfair trade practices claims arising from alleged product defects. He has extensive experience handling personal injury and wrongful death matters ranging from premises liability and negligent security to benzene exposure.

Jaret represents builders, contractors, and developers in breach of contract, construction defect, mold, and building product-related claims. He represented homebuilders involved in the Chinese drywall product liability multidistrict litigation proceeding in Louisiana.

Jaret has experience in all phases of litigation, including early case assessments and resolutions, class certification determination, binding arbitration, and trial.

Jaret is certified as a circuit civil mediator by the Florida Supreme Court. He is also certified as a mediator by the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida.
