Overview

Saray Ravelo represents clients in professional liability, employment, and commercial litigation matters. While handling professional liability matters, including medical malpractice, Saray uses her nursing training and interest in health care as a unique angle for approaching defense of physicians, nurses, and clinical laboratories.

Saray is known for her fierce advocacy on behalf of clients in all stages, from presuit through trial. Her experience includes completing written discovery, taking and defending fact and expert depositions, first chairing mediations and arbitrations, complex motions hearings, court conferences, and trial.
