To keep you informed of legislative changes resulting from the 2011 Florida Regular Legislative Session, Carlton Fields' Government Law and Consulting practice group is pleased to provide you with our latest legislative summary providing a general overview of the Omnibus Property/Sinkhole Insurance Package Bill (House Strike-All to Senate Bill 408) passed by the 2011 Florida Legislature and approved by the Governor on May 17, 2011.¹

Due to the volume of issues addressed in this bill, this summary is not an exhaustive summary of the bill and we recommend that you refer to the actual bill passed by the Legislature and approved by the Governor available at <http://www.flsenate.gov/Session/Bill/2011/0408/BillText/er/HTML>

This bill makes numerous and significant changes to laws related to property insurance to address insurance cost-drivers, contribute to stabilizing Florida's property insurance market, and attract new capital investment to Florida. During the legislative process, the bill underwent significant debate and multiple amendments, with the final product resulting in a strike-all amendment by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill 408. The bill was presented to Governor Scott for his signature on May 11, 2011 and signed into law on May 17, 2011. However, it should be noted that the bill has received negative press as Senator Mike Fasano (Rep. – District 11) released a public statement prior to the bill signage asking Governor Scott to veto the legislation after its successful passage through the Florida Legislature. Once signed, Senator Fasano released another statement expressing disappointment in the Governor's decision.

If as part of the renegotiation, an insurer agrees to an acceleration of the surplus note, the insurer may be exempt from premium-to-surplus requirements required under the Program.

Insurer Capitalization – Minimum Capital and Surplus

Minimum capital and surplus requirements for certain new and existing insurers are increased. - Requires an insurer or its representative (e.g, company employee adjuster, independent adjuster, attorney, and investigator) to provide 48 hours notice to the insured or claimant, public adjuster, or legal representative of the claimant before scheduling a meeting with the claimant or an on-site inspection of the insured property. If the required notice is not provided, the insured or claimant may deny access to the property. The insured or claimant may waive the 48 hour notice.
- Requires a public adjuster to ensure prompt notice of property loss claims submitted to an insurer. The public adjuster must also supply his or her contract, that the property is available for inspection of loss or damage by the insurer, and the insurer is given an opportunity to interview the insured directly about the loss and the claim. The insurer must be allowed to obtain necessary information to investigate and respond to the claim.

A contractor may discuss or explain a bid for construction or repair of covered property with a residential property owner who has suffered loss or damage covered by a property insurance policy, or the insurer of such property, if the contractor is doing so for the usual and customary fees applicable to the work to be performed as stated in the contract between the contractor and the insured.

Notices of Cancellation, Nonrenewal or Renewal Premium

The bill revises the notice of cancellation, nonrenewal or termination requirements for personal lines and commercial lines residential property insurance policies:

- At least 120 days notice must be given to a named insured whose residential structure has been insured by the insurer or its affiliate for at least 5-years. Under current law 180 days notice must be provided for the cancellation, nonrenewal, or termination of such policies.
- Allows an insurer to cancel or nonrenew a property insurance policy after at least 45 days notice if the FOIR finds that the early cancellation of some or all of the insurer's policies is necessary to protect the best interests of the public or policyholders and the FOIR approves the insurer's plan for early cancellation or nonrenewal of some or all of its policies. The FOIR may base such finds upon the financial condition of the insurer, lack of adequate reinsurance coverage for hurricane risk, or other relevant factors. The FOIR may condition its finding on the consent of the insurer to be placed in administrative supervision or the appointment of a receiver under the Florida Insurance Code.
- Specifies that a policy covering both a home and motor vehicle may nonrenewed for any reason applicable to either the property or motor vehicle insurance after providing 90 days notice.
- Allows insurers to issue a "Notice of Change in Policy Terms" with a renewal policy to make a change in policy terms without nonrenewing those policyholders that the insurer wishes to continue insuring. If an insurer fails to provide the "Notice of Change of Policy Terms", the original policy terms remain in effect until the next renewal and the proper service of the notice or until the effective date of replacement coverage obtained by the named insured, whichever comes first. Proof of mailing or registered mailing through the U.S. Postal Service of the "Notice of Change in Policy Terms" to the named insured at the address shown in the policy, although not required, is sufficient proof of notice.

Replacement Costs

The bill modifies how insurers must pay dwelling or personal property losses on a replacement cost basis:

- For a dwelling loss, the insurer must initially pay the actual cash value, minus the deductible. Subsequently the insurer must pay any amounts necessary to perform repairs as work is performed. If a total loss of a dwelling occurs, the insurer must pay the entire replacement cost coverage without holdback of depreciation in value pursuant to the Valued Policy Law.

- For personal property losses insured on a replacement cost basis, the insurer must offer two claim payment options. The first option requires the insurer to pay the replacement cost without holdback of depreciation, regardless of whether the insured replaces the property. The second option allows the insurer to limit the initial payment to the actual cash value of the personal property to be replaced. To receive payment from the insurer for the full replacement value of the personal property, the insured must provide a receipt for the replaced property to the insurer. A policy authorizing the insurer to require replacement of personal property prior to paying the full replacement cost must provide the policyholder with a premium credit or discount and the insurer must provide clear notice of the payment process before the policy is bound.

Sinkholes

The bill enacts numerous revisions and clarifications to sections 627.706-627.7074, Fla. Stat., governing sinkhole and catastrophic ground cover collapse insurance. The clarifications and revisions to these provisions are intended to reduce the number and cost of sinkhole claims and disputes, increase reliance on scientific or technical determinations relating to sinkhole claims, and ensure that repairs are made in accordance with scientific and technical determinations and insurance claims payments:

- The bill authorizes insurers to restrict catastrophic ground cover collapse and sinkhole loss coverage to the principal building as defined in the insurance policy. The bill also allows an insurer to require a property inspection prior to issuing sinkhole loss coverage.
- The bill clarifies that additional living expense coverage is only available pursuant to a sinkhole loss if there is structural damage to the covered building.
- The bill changes the definition of "sinkhole loss," primarily by creating a statutory definition of "structural damage." A sinkhole loss is defined in statute as structural damage to the covered building, including the foundation, caused by sinkhole activity.
- The bill creates a detailed definition of "structural damage" for purposes of determining whether a sinkhole loss has occurred. The definition specifies five distinct types of damage that constitute structural damage. Each type of damage is tied to standards contained in the Florida Building Code or used in the construction industry. Accordingly, in order for the policyholder to obtain policy benefits for sinkhole loss, the insured structure must sustain structural damage as defined by the bill that is caused by sinkhole activity.

- The bill creates a substantially new process for an insurer's investigation of a sinkhole claim. The process requires the insurer to determine whether: (1) the building has incurred structural damage that (2) has been caused by sinkhole activity. Coverage for sinkhole loss is not available if structural damage is not present or sinkhole activity is not the cause of structural damage. The bill creates many new requirements pertaining to the payment of sinkhole claims and stabilization of sinkholes.
- The bill specifies that if a covered building suffers a sinkhole loss or catastrophic ground cover collapse, the insured must repair such damage in accordance with the insurer's professional engineer's recommended repairs. However, if repairs cannot be completed within policy limits, the insurer has the option to either pay to complete the recommended repairs or tender policy limits.
- The policyholder is prohibited from accepting a rebate from a person performing sinkhole repairs. If the policyholder does receive a rebate, coverage under the insurance policy is rendered void and the policyholder must refund the amount of the rebate to the insurer. A person who offers a rebate commits insurance fraud punishable as a third degree felony as provided in section 775.082, Fla. Stat. (up to 5 years imprisonment), section 775.083, Fla. Stat. (up to a $5,000 fine), and section 775.084, Fla. Stat. (for a habitual felony offender up to 10 years imprisonment with no eligibility for release for 5 years).
- The circumstances that allow an insurer to nonrenew a policy on the basis of filing a sinkhole claim are modified. The policy may only be nonrenewed if the insurer makes payments for sinkhole loss that equal or exceed policy limits for damage to the covered building or the policyholder does not repair the structure in accordance with the engineering recommendations.
- A sinkhole testing report must verify whether the structural damage to the covered building has been identified within a reasonable professional probability.
- In addition to filing the sinkhole testing report with the Clerk of Court after paying a sinkhole loss claim, the bill requires the insurer to also file the neutral evaluator's report (if any), a copy of the certification indicating that stabilization has been completed (if applicable), and the amount of the claim payment. The policyholder must file a copy of any sinkhole report prepared on behalf of the policyholder as a precondition to accepting a sinkhole loss payment.
- Once building stabilization or foundation repairs of a sinkhole loss are completed, the professional engineer responsible for monitoring the repairs must issue a report to the property owner detailing the repairs performed and certifying that the repairs were performed properly. The professional engineer must file with the Clerk of Court a copy of the report and certification, the legal description of the real property, and the name of the county clerk of court.
- The bill also changes the neutral evaluation process.

Other Provisions

The bill also:

- Repeals the consumer advocate report card for property insurers.
- Clarifies that the requirement that an insurer must pay property insurance claim within 90 days of receiving notice of the claim applies to reopened and supplemental claims.
- Clarifies that inquiries about coverage on a property insurance contract are not claim activity unless a claim is filed by the policyholder which results in an insurer investigation of the claim.
- Repeals the electronic database of sinkhole activity.
- Specifies that the insurer may request at its own expense the verification a uniform hurricane mitigation verification provided to the insurer by the policyholder or policyholder's agent in addition to forms provided by an authorized mitigation inspector.
- Provides that all provisions of the act are severable from any provision that is held invalid.
