

Carlton Fields Alumnus John L. Badalamenti Confirmed as U.S. District Judge

JUNE 1, 2020

Carlton Fields alumnus John L. Badalamenti was confirmed by the U.S. Senate to serve as a district judge for the Middle District of Florida.

Judge Badalamenti was nominated by President Donald J. Trump in February 2020.

From 2015 until his appointment to the federal bench, he served as a judge for Florida's Second District Court of Appeal.

Judge Badalamenti joined Carlton Fields as an associate in 2001 after serving as a U.S. Department of Justice honors attorney and a law clerk to the Honorable Frank Mays Hull of the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals. He subsequently worked as an assistant federal public defender for the Middle District of Florida for nearly a decade.

©2020 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.