

Capitol Report - State Procurement

CONSTRUCTION TRANSACTIONS | JUNE 8, 2009

Martha H. Chumbler

Court Decision and Veto Raise Eyebrows in Tallahassee on Procurement Issue

The veto of a major bill relating to State Financial Matters has not stymied legislators' demands for changes in the state's procurement practices. Expect attention to significant changes in Florida's procurement laws next session.

---

This Capitol Report was written by Marti Chumbler, a shareholder in the Carlton Fields Tallahassee Office.

Marti practices primarily in the area of state administrative law and has substantial experience in the area of public procurement. Her experience incorporates significant involvement with state and local tax, land use, and environmental matters, including agency negotiations and formal proceedings before agencies, the Division of Administrative Hearings, and the Governor and Cabinet. Ms. Chumbler also has substantial experience representing clients in challenges to both adopted and proposed rules of state agencies. She is Board Certified in State & Federal Government and Administrative Practice by The Florida Bar.

Marti can be reached at mchumbler@carltonfields.com or 850.513.3612.

©2019 Carlton Fields, P.A. Carlton Fields practices law in California through Carlton Fields, LLP. Carlton Fields publications should not be construed as legal advice on any specific facts or circumstances. The contents are intended for general information and educational purposes only, and should not be relied on as if it were advice about a particular fact situation. The distribution of this publication is not intended to create, and receipt of it does not constitute, an attorney-client relationship with Carlton Fields. This publication may not be quoted or referred to in any other publication or proceeding without the prior written consent of the firm, to be given or withheld at our discretion. To request reprint permission for any of our publications, please use our Contact Us form via the link below. The views set forth herein are the personal views of the author and do not necessarily reflect those of the firm. This site may contain hypertext links to information created and maintained by other entities. Carlton Fields does not control or guarantee the accuracy or completeness of this outside information, nor is the inclusion of a link to be intended as an endorsement of those outside sites.