Overview

Farah Alkayed focuses her practice on corporate, real estate, and capital market transactions including mergers and acquisitions, private equity investments, public finance, and cannabis investment projects.

When negotiating on behalf of her clients, Farah applies her litigation experience, representing institutional and individual clients on contractual and shareholder disputes, data and privacy breaches, as well as construction and real estate matters, to identify and preempt potential disputes.

A native of Amman, Jordan, she is fluent in Arabic.
