Overview

Brianna Donet's practice focuses on commercial litigation, with an emphasis on mass tort and product liability matters. She represents a global chemical company in its asbestos personal injury and wrongful death cases in South Florida. Brianna also defends a global pharmaceutical and consumer goods manufacturer in talc-related personal injury and wrongful death cases filed throughout Florida.

During her time at Washington University School of Law, Brianna served as the managing editor of the Washington University Global Studies Law Review. She also worked as a student attorney for the law school's Immigration Clinic where she assisted clients in immigration matters such as naturalization, adjustment of status, family reunification, obtaining employment benefits, deportation defense, and petitions for asylum.

Prior to law school, Brianna was a morning news producer at WTVJ-NBC 6 South Florida, Miami/Fort Lauderdale's NBC affiliate station. She is proficient in Spanish.
