Overview

Greg Gidus is a litigator with a focus on the insurance industry. He represents insurance clients in sophisticated first-party property and third-party liability coverage matters and other complex coverage disputes involving directors and officers liability insurance, errors and omissions liability insurance, professional liability insurance, employment practices liability insurance, comprehensive general liability insurance, financial institution bonds, and first-party bad faith. His other litigation experience covers a wide range of matters and industries.

Greg also counsels businesses and other clients on cybersecurity issues and assists in responding to security breaches and data loss incidents, guiding clients through the loss of personally identifiable information and other system compromises.

Greg is a regular contributing writer to PropertyCasualtyFocus, the firm's blog focused on legal developments in property casualty insurance. Prior to joining the firm, he was a law clerk to the Honorable Susan C. Bucklew of the U.S. District Court for the Middle District of Florida.
